

Kendall and Kerr County Flood Relief Donations and Updates (updated: 7/9/2025)

This is not a comprehensive list of organizations accepting donations; just the major ones.

WARNING TO DONORS: Scammers are already setting up fake accounts that look a lot like the real ones. Make 100% certain you are donating to a legitimate organization. Laura Bray (KCDP Chair) has vetted all of the organizations below.

Monetary Donations:

Kendall County - Hill Country Family Services (HCFS): Coordinating flood relief in Kendall County.

Donations to volunteer fire departments are also welcome, as they are chronically short of resources:

- Comfort VFD (in Kendall County): <https://www.comfortvfd.org/donate/>
- Center Point VFD (in Kerr County): Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Cpvfd/>. They have set up a Venmo account for donations. Visit the VFD Facebook page for more details.

Kerr County - World Central Kitchen (WCK): WCKs Relief Team is in central Texas to support communities impacted by catastrophic flooding. WCK is first to the frontlines, providing meals in response to humanitarian, climate, and community crises. (Note: you need to *copy* this URL and paste it into your browser. The hotlink will not work.)

Kerrville Pets Alive: Rescuing and taking in displaced pets with the hopes of reuniting them with their pet parents. In need of monetary assistance to support these efforts. Donate here:

Donations of “Stuff:” Suspended at this time until collecting organizations can acquire larger warehouse space. This will become more important in a few weeks as property owners work to recover what they can.

Donations from Out-of-Area Friends:

You have out-of-area and out-of-state friends who will want to contribute, and they may be more comfortable sending you the money personally, knowing you’ll know best where to send those funds. (One volunteer posted on her personal Instagram account and already has over $500 she will use to purchase Visa gift cards for HCFS.) Your friends can send money via Venmo, Zelle, or PayPal, then you can use those funds to donate to your local organization of choice or buy Visa gift cards for HCFS.
